Personal details and the date of the CV

Surname: Lu

First names: Yifei

Researcher ID: ORCID: 0000-0001-5977-7461

Date of the CV: 18 Jan 2026

Research Profile

My research examines social stratification and inequality under conditions of rapid institutional and technological change, with a primary focus on contemporary China. I study how transformations in education systems, digital infrastructures, and policy environments shape individuals' cognition, behavior, and life chances. Using quantitative and comparative methods, I leverage the Chinese case to inform broader theoretical debates and policy discussions across developed and developing societies.
